

Flint family business John P. O'Sullivan Distributing, Inc. honored with 2nd consecutive national MillerCoors President's Award

FLINT, MICHIGAN -- MillerCoors President Gavin Hattersley recently awarded local Flint beer distributor John P. O'Sullivan Distributing, Inc. with the 2015 "MillerCoors President's Award" in front of some 2,000 fellow distributors from across the country. This is the second year in a row that O'Sullivan Distributing has won this prestigious award.

“We are very proud to receive the MillerCoors President's Award for the second year in a row and we want to recognize the hard-working men and women at our family owned company who give us their all every day to help us achieve this recognition,” said O'Sullivan Vice President Joanie O'Sullivan-Butler. “This is a team award, and we are extremely fortunate to have one of the best teams of employees around! They reflect our commitment to doing the best we can for MillerCoors, our business partners and our community.”

The President's Award was presented at the annual MillerCoors Distributor Convention held March 22-23 in New Orleans. The President's Award recognizes sales excellence by rewarding the top performing distributors from across the five MillerCoors sales regions with a special trip for two to Vienna, Austria.

“These distributors should be extremely proud of this well-deserved recognition, as they represent the absolute best in our business,” said Hattersley. “These teams not only understand, but have successfully executed the agenda and goals we have laid forth.”
