ANTI-TIED HOUSE PROVISION

The Anti-tied House Law is a core component of Michigan's three-tier system. It prevents any entity in one-tier (supplier, wholesaler, or retailer) from owning or controlling an entity in another tier. These laws ensure the independence of each tier, and promote transparency and competition in the marketplace. For example, this law prevents a supplier from dictating to a wholesaler or retailer what products they can sell or how they operate their respective business. This law has helped foster the growth of small breweries and wineries because it prevents large multi-national brewers from taking punitive action against distributors for also selling smaller competing brands.

(b) A wholesaler to hold, directly or indirectly, a license in the retailer or supplier tier.

(c) A supplier to hold, directly or indirectly, a license in the wholesaler or retailer tier.

(14) Subsection (13) shall not be interpreted in a manner that would prohibit a class C, tavern, class A hotel, or class B hotel licensee from receiving a brewpub license or that would prohibit a micro brewer or brewer from having an on-site restaurant.

SALESPERSON LICENSING

MCL 436.1502

Employees of suppliers, wholesalers, and brokers who sell, deliver, promote, or otherwise assist in the sale of alcoholic liquor must obtain a salesperson license. Individuals who are employed solely as drivers or merchandisers are not required to obtain a salesperson license.

As a prerequisite for salesperson licensure, an individual must complete a MLCC approved salesperson accreditation program. The Michigan Beer & Wine Wholesalers association offers a salesperson accreditation program that can be found at <https://mbwwasaleslicense.org/>. This accreditation must also be obtained every three years upon renewal of the salesperson license. The MLCC application for a salesperson license can be found at:

EXCISE TAX REPORTS

Beer

For beer tax reporting, if you choose to use the tax rate per ounce (0.0015877) that is listed on the tax report form instead of the different tax rates listed on the tax report form, you must still show the individual pack size, the amount sold of the pack size, and then the conversion to ounces. Then, use the ounce tax rate to calculate the tax for each pack size.

Wine

For wine tax reporting, you must show a breakdown of the different pack sizes and calculate the total liters for each pack size.

Mixed Spirit Drink

For mixed spirit drink tax reporting, you must show a breakdown of the different pack sizes and calculate the total liters for each pack size.

All Reporting

- You MUST begin filing your forms from the effective date of your license, whether or not you have registered product with the MLCC.
- You MUST use the name under which your business is licensed on all tax reporting documents, not your DBA (Doing Business As) name.
- You MUST use your MLCC LICENSE number on all documents, not your Business ID (BID) number.
- You must submit sales reports that are legible and in a large enough font size to be easily readable. Please submit licensee sales reports that are sortable or that are already sorted by size. The sales reports MUST match your tax reports. Reports that we cannot use will be returned to you and MUST be revised and resubmitted. Excel spreadsheets are preferred for the sales reports.
- When submitting your sales reports, do NOT report beer, wine, and mixed spirit drink on the same spreadsheet. Each sales report MUST be sent separately to the correct mailbox. Failure to submit the sales reports separately will result in them being returned to you for you to separate the product types.
- Do NOT report sales from your purchases from Michigan Brewers, Micro Brewers, Michigan Wine Makers, Small Wine Makers, or Mixed Spirit Drink Manufacturers on your tax reports UNLESS you have been designated to pay the excise tax on the sales of the product that you have purchased from them.
- If you have been designated by a Michigan Brewer, Micro Brewer, Michigan Wine Maker, Small Wine Maker, or Mixed Spirit Drink Manufacturer to pay the excise tax, you will pay the excise tax on your SALES of these products. The MLCC and you, as the designated wholesaler, will receive notification of the designation before April 1 and the designation will be effective May 1. Changes to the designation request can be made by the Michigan Brewer, Micro Brewer, Michigan Wine Maker, Small Wine Maker, or Mixed Spirit Drink Manufacturer only once a year, by April 1.
- FOR WINE sales reports, you MUST separate the wine that is 16% or less alcohol by volume (ABV) from the wine over 16% ABV. Failure to do so will result in the report being sent back to you for you to separate the wine percentage categories.
- Your sales report must show the following: date of sale, invoice number, name and address of the customer, name and description of product, including the pack size and ABV (for wine), supplier name, bottle/case quantity, and price.
- When sending in your tax payments, send a copy of each tax report and a SEPARATE check for each tax payment.

- Tax reports, payments and documentation must be postmarked no later than the 15th of the month following the reporting period. If late, they will be subject to a $25.00 late fee and 1% interest fee per month until paid.
- CIDER and MEAD are reported as WINE.
- Malt based products are reported as BEER.
- Do NOT report BITTERS on your tax report or other documents.
- Do NOT pay tax on wholesale to wholesale transactions. Tax is to be paid only on sales to RETAIL licensees.
- Do not report and pay tax on non-alcoholic product, out-of-state sales, or sales to the military or an Indian reservation.
- If you have paid taxes on non-alcoholic product or on-product from Michigan microbreweries or Michigan wineries since February 2015, you may request a credit using the Claim for Recovery of Beer, Mixed Spirit Drink, or Wine Taxes (LCMW-811), which is located on our website. Upon verification, a credit letter will be issued to you.
- EMAIL your Wholesalers Monthly Report of Purchases along with your purchase invoices and sales reports to the appropriate mailbox listed below.
- Please remember, if you do not distribute Beer or Wine or Mixed Spirit Drink, you are still required to file a tax form in January of each year for each type of product. This form should state that you do not distribute that particular type of product.
- Please use the most current and accurate forms. Forms are posted on our website, <http://www.michigan.gov/lcc>, under the Financial Management Division Forms section of the Commission Forms webpage.

SALES OF NON-ALCOHOLIC PRODUCTS

A number of members have been expanding the products they deliver to include non-alcoholic products. While the products are non-alcoholic, the potential to violate the Michigan Liquor Control Code (the Code) and/or MLCC rules (the Rules) still exists.

Non-alcoholic Product Delivered to a Licensed Retailer

When delivering non-alcoholic product to a licensed retailer, the bottom line is that a licensed wholesaler must follow the Code and the Rules that govern alcoholic product. The MLCC has approved one exception; a licensed wholesaler can provide a quantity discount to a licensed retailer for the non-alcoholic product.

Wholesalers should keep in mind that they are required to treat an unlicensed retailer that is related to a licensed retailer as if the unlicensed retailer is licensed. For example, Company X owns three Joe's Markets, two of the locations are unlicensed but the third location has a license. A licensed wholesaler is required to treat the two unlicensed locations as if they are licensed because they are all owned by a common entity.

While the licensed wholesaler cannot give away merchandise, a supplier of only non-alcoholic product (one that does not also supply alcoholic) can give away merchandise to a licensed or unlicensed retailer but the supplier must deliver and install the merchandise. The unlicensed supplier could also pay a shelf fee to a licensed or unlicensed retailer. However, the MLCC has indicated that a licensed wholesaler cannot participate in such a program, whether directly or indirectly.

Non-alcoholic Product Delivered to an Unlicensed Retailer

When delivering non-alcoholic product to a non-licensed retailer; a licensed wholesaler is not bound by the Code and the Rules governing alcoholic product. However, as mentioned previously a licensed wholesaler should take care to ensure that the unlicensed retailer is not related to a licensed retailer.

Creation of a Separate Company

The only way that a licensed wholesaler can avoid the Code and the Rules while delivering non-alcoholic product to both licensed and unlicensed retailers is to set up a separate company. The MLCC allows licensed wholesalers to establish a separate company (separate non-licensed sales/delivery people, separate trucks etc.) to deliver the non-alcoholic product to both licensed and unlicensed retailers. However, the new unlicensed company must truly be a separate company and not just a sales division of the licensed wholesaler. If the MLCC suspects that the separate company is only a sham company, they will issue a citation to the licensed wholesaler for violations of the Code and Rules.

The separate company can give away things like coolers. In this scenario, the separate company MUST be taking the sales orders and delivering the product, not just the cooler. If the licensed wholesaler still sells and delivers the product, the new company will not be considered separate and will not be allowed to give away things like coolers.

TRANSACTIONS INVOLVING THE OPERATION OF A SEPARATE COMPANY As indicated above, a separate company must be truly separate from the licensed wholesaler. This means that it must have its own delivery vehicles, drivers and sales team. However, this does not require separate ownership. Accordingly, the separate company can have the same ownership, officers and board of directors as the licensed wholesaler. In addition, the separate company can also use the same warehouse as the licensed wholesaler; however, it should probably lease the warehouse space that it occupies.

The MLCC has also stated that the separate company cannot be used to simply set up accounts with licensed retailers, pay slot fees and utilize things like free fills and then transfer or assign the account to a licensed wholesaler. In other words, the separate company cannot do all of the things that would violate the Code and Rules as a way to set up an account and then transfer the account to the licensed wholesaler. The commission considers this type of transaction as a clear attempt to use the separate company as a conduit to violate the Code and Rules.
